I Prologue

A long time ago in a galaxy far far away... Star Wars Episode II The New Sith. Dogo and Greedo have been to Tatooine to free young Anikin Skywalker from the clutches of the toydarian on his planet to train him to be a Jedi. Dogo and Greedo got killed on the swamp-like planet called Dagobah by Darth Squid. Yoda as a ghost killed darth squid to end his legacy of victories against the Jedi from the light side but when he's dead, another one fills in. Someone who tries to rule the galaxy ...

II The Move

On the outer rim of space, 2 small Jedi ARC fighters were dodging the tiny vulture droids laser fire aiming at their ships. "Artoo", said Obi Wan Kenobi. He responded with several beeps.

"Find the other ARC fighters with the other Jedi's on it", yelled Obi wan. "You can't find him?" Said Obi Wan. R2-D2 responded with a beep. "Search in your mind to see where it is", said Yoda. "I know where it is thanks to Yoda", Obi Wan replied. "You're welcome Obi Wan", said Yoda. Straight ahead, Obi wan could hear shooting going on. He assumed it was coming from the star ship. Obi Wan wondered, would we even make it there with all the shooting around the outer rim? Obi Wan just saw that the deflector shield was up so he sent a message to everyone. "Don't shot at the star ship because the deflector shield is up" Boomed Obi Wan. BOOM! A Jedi's star ship just got blown up. "Oh no", wined Obi Wan. The star ships were getting closer and closer and closer till they were 10 meters away from the ship. They were racing at the doors of the star ship. The doors were closing and they might not be able to slip through the narrow gap. Did they slip through the doors or did they get crushed?

III More Jedi's

The gap got smaller and smaller. "Hold tight", said Obi Wan. They just managed to squeeze through the hole and into the ship bay. Suddenly, a swarm of battle droids dropped from the ceiling of the ship and the battle droid commander of the group asked "Are you guys Jedi", asked the commander. "No we're not", lied Obi Wan. The commander's eyes were fixated on the Jedi's lightsabers. "Robots Attack!" Commanded the commander. The Jedi's kept on deflecting the laser fire with the laser fire singing back to the droids.

Anikin was in the old Jedi Temple

Training to be a Jedi by Latu Mecha. "Rely on the force not the movements of your lightsaber", said

Latu calmly. "I know", said Anikin

arrogantly.

"Good", said

Latu. Now

you are a Jedi knight and you are on the Jedi council. "Thank you", said Anikin. After his calm training, Anikin looked for Obi Wan and Yoda using his holographic map. He suddenly found them in a star ship on the outer rim of space and headed of in his Jedi interceptor.

“Ugh”, said Obi Wan in an awkward way. “I wish Anikin was here to help. Just then, Anikin jumped out of nowhere and killed the battle droids. Little did they know that they still had two driodecars going after them! “Run”, said Anikin after realising that driodecars were chasing them.

The driodecars were chasing them at top speed running through corridors, the control room and the ships parked in the ship bay. Anikin unexpectedly back flipped and killed the driodecars. “Close, that was”, said Yoda. “I agree”, said Obi wan. “Same”, said Anikin. “Hold still”, said an unfamiliar voice. The 3 turned around to see a black figure with a bent lightsaber hilt. “Who are you”, said Anikin. “I am Darth Pouch”, said the figure. Just after he finish talking he charged at the 3 Jedi like a bull running at a red piece of cloth. He swung his blood red lightsaber at all of their heads but Darth pouch missed them all. Obi Wan retreated to his ship along with the others and zoomed of to Alderran for a peaceful rest but he wasn’t expecting this!

IV The Big Battle

On the small and peaceful world of Alderran, Obi Wan spotted Jedi down below. Obi Wan said, "We need to investigate what's going down there. Yoda and Anikin nodded. When they got down there was war going on. There were Battle Droids and Driodecars surrounding dead Jedi. There was also super battle droids and most surprising, Darth Pouch! Yoda tried a sneak attack on Darth Pouch but Darth Pouch back flipped and killed Yoda!

"NOOOO!" Yelled Obi Wan. Darth Pouch turned around and saw Obi Wan yelling out NOOOO.

Battle droids were surrounding Obi Wan and knocked him out.

When Obi Wan woke up he saw that Anikin was tied to a board.

Obi Wan tried to get him out but he couldn't because he was also tied to a board! Darth Pouch suddenly walked in through the door. "Why are you doing this", said Obi Wan.

"Yeah what are you doing", said Anikin. "I want to kill you guys", Boomed Darth Pouch. Suddenly, Darth Pouch swung his lightsaber to chop Obi Wan in half. Obi wan ignited his lightsaber and blocked the blood red beam kill Obi Wan. He used the force to push him away and used his lightsaber to cut the rope and set himself and Anikin free. They ran out of the room and went to there ship which came to here and flew to the Jedi Temple with the other Jedi retreating.
